

Discovering Diabetes Licensing Agreement: Terms and Conditions

Each Discovering Diabetes Program Manual and/or AV Package is sold with a license for its use in the delivery of diabetes patient education services in one, and only one, physical site. Programs with multiple service locations are required to purchase additional copies of the program materials, one set for each site. Contact DMTC for discount information on multiple copies for programs with multiple service locations.

Copyright

Copyrights for the Discovering Diabetes Program Manual, AV Package and Patient Text, Diabetes Myths, Misconceptions and Big Fat Lies!, are retained by Diabetes Management and Training Centers, Inc. (DMTC) of Phoenix, Arizona. Purchasers are responsible for complying with all applicable copyright laws.

Except as noted below, no part of these documents may be reproduced, stored in or introduced into a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means (electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise) for any purpose, except with the written permission of DMTC.

Copyright Exception: Permission to Duplicate Program Delivery Materials

DMTC grants purchasers express permission to reproduce specific materials used for the delivery of the program, as follows:

- ◆ Purchasers of the Program Manual may copy the following forms in numbers required for the delivery of their program. Purchaser's logo, phone number, address and other identifying information may be added to the forms.
 - ◆ Diabetes Management Assessment Form
 - ◆ Diabetes Self-Management Class Progress Notes
 - ◆ Referral Form
 - ◆ Risk Assessment and Stratification Form
 - ◆ Topic Completion Checklist
 - ◆ Diabetes M&Ms Class Documentation Form
 - ◆ "Discovery Learning" Record Keeping Form
- ◆ Purchasers of the AV Package may display all of the teaching transparencies in either electronic or printed form when teaching the Discovering Diabetes patient education program. Further, they have express permission to reproduce the program and documentation forms listed above from the digital files contained on their AV Package CD-Rom, adding personalization as described above.
- ◆ Purchasers of "Diabetes Myths, Misconceptions and Big Fat Lies!", including patients who receive the book while attending a Discovering Diabetes patient class, have express permission to copy the record keeping form contained therein as needed for their personal use.

Modifications

Program purchasers may personalize materials for local use without further permission from DMTC. Personalization includes non-substantive modifications such as addition of the purchaser's name, logo, address and so on to forms as described above, substitution of locally relevant food choices in the AV Package and updating as needed. More extensive modifications must be submitted to DMTC for review.

Restrictions

Purchasers agree to retain possession of the manual, forms and AV package in their institution. Discovering Diabetes materials cannot be loaned or otherwise shared with other professionals or diabetes programs. Persons who approach purchasers for information regarding Discovering Diabetes will be directed to DMTC for further information
